Smallpox Again. Last Saturday the two telephone foremen that had been ill at the Myrtle hotel for a few days, were pronounced by the physicians to be afflicted with small-pox. When they were first stricken the physicians thought they were suffering, but the disease took an unmistakable aspect of small-pox Saturday. The council was called together Saturday evening by Acting Mayor J. S. White, and it was decided to remove the sick men that night to engine house No. 2, where comfortable quarters had been fitted up for them. The Myrtle, after the removal of the patients, was thoroughly fumigated and there is little likelihood of the disease spreading.—Odessa Ledger.

Just received. A few lots of choice spring goods in fancy chevrons and worsted suits. H. SINAUER. 5-16ml

Fortunate Mr. Folk.

Good fortune follows Mr. Folk. His latest luck is the opposition of the Globe-Democrat. That paper charges that he is consorting with the State administration. It will not be long before he will be numbered as one of the members of the ring. His present offense grows out of the fact that many of the same counties, Callaway for instance, which are giving him such large majorities are also declaring for Cook for Secretary of State, and Allen for State Auditor.

If Mr. Folk can continue to incur the abuse of the Globe-Democrat and for these reasons he will do more than he can in any other way to rally all the party to his support. For it will be neither the Republican newspaper nor many so-called Democrats to whom he must look for election but to the stalwart and faithful members of the party who are represented by the members of the present State administration.—The Columbia Mo., Herald.

EXPOSURE

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horebound Syrup is the best cure.

Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas, writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horebound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take." For sale by Crenshaw & Young, 25c, 50c, $1.00.
